THE WHITE FAWN.—This magnificent spectacle, far surpassing in the gorgeousness of its mise en scene anything ever witnessed in Charleston, will be presented for the first time at our theatre on Thursday night. The Grand Corps de Ballet, led by the accomplished danscuses Mile. Esmeraldi Diani and Mile. Augusta Sohlke, and reinforced by the old Charleston favorites, the Vane sisters, will constitute such an attraction as is seldom offered to the public in a Southern city. The Macon Telegraph, in commenting upon this piece, says: graps, in commenting upon this piece, says:

In parting with the "Fawn," the management, and the Elve-liks artistes, we have but one expression to offer, and that is of unqualified praise. The "Shadow Dance," by Sohlke; the "Hungarian Polka," by Diani; the "Can-Can," with its voluptuous beauty, as represented by all the principals; the pretty Laura Belie; the fairy sisters, slike and Isabel Vane; Malvini, LeCompte, Saurai, and hosts of other sprites, such as have never visited sur dreamland before—these will haunt us, and all others who have the slightest appreciation of the beautiful.

CHARLESTON .- "What's it?" "Where's it?" "Who's got it?" "Where did it come from?" "Have you seen it?" "There it goes!" "Whoop! don't it fly?" "Break he neck durreckly." "De debbil in dat same ting." "Confederate cavalry on a charge." "Or retreat "The ghost of Tam O'Shanter's mare." "Any other horse would get as thin that eat as little." Such were some of the myriad interrogatories and remarks made by the crowd yesterday on the appearance of a velocipede in the streets of this city. The Savannah Advertiser boasts that Savannah is not behind the world, because somebody has an agency for velocipedes for Georgia and South Carolina. Well, we acknowledge that Charleston is some seconds behind Paris and New York, but she has a velociped of her own manufacture, and she intends to catch up. The one that created such a sensation yesterday was made by Mr. Duc, an expert tinner, in conjunction with Mr. D. B. Haselton the sewing machine man, and was ridden by Mr. Duc through the principal streets, at a rate that would soon reduce horse flesh to the tenuity of the velocipede itself. Mr. Duc was followed, lengo intervallo, by a great crowd of men and boys, black and white; and people indoors who heard he was coming rushed to the windews to get a peep at the onderful horse substitute. The sensation created by the mechanical Rosinante is, however, best illustrated by the fact that a certain well known young amateur poet was found by his friends in a faintin fit, his hand still holding a piece of paper on which were written the following lines:

You wish to rhyme velocipede?
The mother lets the bossy feed.
The swallow skims the mossy mead,
The baby likes to tose a reed.
The apple bears a glossy seed.
The reindeer takes a mossy feed.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK.—This well-managed institution has lately, we are pleased to learn, ncreased its capital of $285,000 to $400,000. The additional sum was secured without effort, and was taken mostly by the old stockholders. Several hundred thousand dollars additional subscription could have been obtained had it been necessary.

THE PIONEER SOUTHERN EDUCATIONAL SO-CIETY'S SCHOOL .- The January report of this institution, under the charge of the Rev. A. T. Porter, is as follows:

We have over 400 children's names on our roll, but We have over 400 children's names on our roll, but have this month made a rigid examination of the same, and have stricken off all who from frequent absence it has been deemed expedient to regard as no longer in the school. Such have to reapply, and will not be admitted unless there is some certainty of more punctual attendance. We have therefore dispensed with one temile teacher this month. Up to this date the actual scholars are 30°. The average attendance is 26°.

THE CATHOLIC ORPHAN ASYLUMS .- For the first time since their establishment, the two Catholic Orphan Asylums (male and female) of Charleston, are about to appeal to the city government for as istance. We learn that the good Sisters are compelled to this step with reluctance, and only under the pressure of sore necessity. The following petition has been very numerously signed by the friends and well wishers of the Asylums among the tax-payers, and (as copies have been left at the newspaper offices) we doubt not that large numbers of our humane citizens generally will add their signatures to the memorial.

The CITY OF CHARLESTON.

To the Honorable the Mayor and Aldermen in Common Council assembled:

The memorial of the undersigned tax payers of the city aforsaid, humbly and respectfully showeth, that the Sisters of Our Lady of Morcy, a body politico and cerporate, instituted for charitable purposes, have been established in this city since 1829, from which period down to the present day toey have been engaged in atending the sick and maintaining and training the combon Council of the combon control of t have been engaged in atending the sick and maintaining and training the orphan. Soon after the establishment of their order in this city, they opened a formale orphan asslum which has ever since been filled to its entire capacity. This asylum they have been enabled to keep up only by the most strenuous exertions on toeir part, frequently laboring under the most difficult embarrassments. And they have had to depend for its support chiefly upon their own efforts, and the charitable donations of the Ca holic citizems of Charleston.

As long as there was room for another, no orphan ever applied in vain for admission to their asylum. They have clothed, fed, comforted and trained upon an average, sixty-five every year from the foundation of their institution to, this day. At no time have these ladies had under their care and taition less than fifty of these little ones, while at other times the number of their little inmates has exceeded seventy-five.

Besides this female orphan asylum, a boy's orphan asylum has been opened in Cannon-street, containing twenty-one boys. This was established June 5, 1867.

The present year there are maintained in these two asylums eighty-six orphans, male and female. Your petitioners, as introductory to the prayer they have now to make, do not propose to address to your contained body as argument, but simply to lay before yet facts, the best argument for an enlightened of the containing.

fore you facts, the best argument for an enlightened and impair-al mind.

This is the hast occasion that the claim of these ladles for municipal and has ever been brought before Council, and your petroners hope that it may be favorably considered.

They would not now obtrude on your honorable body, but the reduced state in which these ladles have been left by various adverse circumstances during and since the war, imperatively demand relief—such relief is now indispensable to them. Finally, your petitioners pray that in the annual appropriation by the city for the relief of the orphun, a certain sum may be allowed this charitable body, that they may be encouraged in the holy work they have undertaken, and that in the administration of our city affairs fair, equal and impartial justice may be dealt out alike to all of its citizens. And your memorialists, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c.
